++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Brightening up on Wednesday, feeling warmer under the sunshine Thursday.

Today:
A cloudy start, with perhaps a few residual outbreaks of drizzle. Things will brighten up during the morning though, with sunny spells becoming predominant in the west. Cloudier in the east, with the odd shower possible in East Anglia. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Tonight:
A fine and dry evening and night, with light winds and variable amounts of cloud, but a chance of mist and fog patches in any prolonged clear spells. Minimum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Thursday:
A fair day on Thursday, any early cloud, mist or fog lifting to sunny spells and isolated afternoon showers. Slightly warmer. Sunshine becoming increasingly hazy during the evening. Maximum temperature 23 deg C (73 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Bright start but increasingly cloudy on Friday, with rain arriving late. Cloudy with rain or showers on Saturday. A cloudy, damp start on Sunday, then sunny spells and isolated showers.
